

The Sam Fox School of Design & Visual Arts and the Skandalaris Center for Entrepreneurial Studies at Washington University in St. Louis would like to invite your nominations for the Skandalaris Awards honoring outstanding achievement in design and the visual arts. These awards will be presented at the first joint conference of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture (ACSA) and National Council of Art Administrators (NCAA), November 4-7, 2009, in St. Louis, Missouri.

SKANDALARIS AWARDS FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN DESIGN & VISUAL ARTS (2)

Two awards will be given to individuals who have demonstrated leadership and entrepreneurship in the fields of Art + Design + Architecture on a local, national or international level by promoting or establishing innovative understandings of "economy," particularly through community-based and/or sustainable practices.

Two $20,000 awards will be presented at the conference. The funds may be used to help support new or ongoing projects and/or creative research that will contribute to the social, cultural and environmental welfare of a community. Each of the two awardees will be asked to present their work in the form of a short lecture.

Selection Committee

The selection committee will be comprised of national leaders in the fields of art, design and architecture.

Nominations

To be considered for the Skandalaris awards, the selection committee must receive a letter of nomination identifying the work and highlighting the accomplishments, research or creative activities of each nominee. This must be accompanied by adequate digital documentation in the form of a CD, DVD or relevant web site links. Nominations are due April 15, 2009.
